Moldovan government, German philanthropic society agree on partnership

Chisinau, 16 August /MOLDPRES/ - Prime Minister Vlad Filat and the head of the Philanthropic Society United Medical Forces "Pro Humanitate" (Germany), Dirk Hartig, signed a memorandum of partnership today, the government's communications and press relations department has said.

Under the document, the society offers to provide support to the government to cover the residents' humanitarian needs. To identify people's pressing needs, Pro Humanitate will collaborate with the public administration authorities by ensuring jointly the implementation of charity projects.

At the same time, according to the memorandum, the Moldovan government will take the necessary actions to efficiently manage and coordinate the activity of reception and distribution of the humanitarian assistance given by the Philanthropic Society United Medical Forces "Pro Humanitate."

The memorandum also sees that the government, through the central specialized bodies of the public administration, which are involved in the reception, distribution and use of the humanitarian assistance according to their purpose, will ensure quickness and efficient cooperation with the sides involved in the process.
